During the term of this Agreement, neither party shall be required to negotiate with respect to any such matter whether or not covered by this Agreement and whether or not within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the times they negotiated or executed this Agreement.

This Agreement shall not be modified in whole or in part by the parties except by an instrument in writing duly executed by both parties.

This Agreement shall be effective as of July 1, 1987, and shall continue in effect until June 30, 1989 subject to the Association's right to negotiate over a successor Agreement, as provided herein.

The term "grievance" means a complaint or claim over the interpretation, application or alleged violation of negotiated agreements, board policies and administrative decisions affecting employees' terms and conditions of employment.

ARTICLE III

An individual who has a complaint shall discuss it first with his immediate supervisor in an attempt to resolve the matter informally. However, if the complainant is the Association, the initial discussion shall be at the level of the Superintendent; and, in such event, if the problem is not resolved to the satisfaction of the Association within fourteen (14) days after the conclusion of the discussion, the procedures prescribed in the subsections of this section shall become applicable.

D. Costs

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator are the only costs which will be shared equally and only in instances where the advisory arbitration is mutually agreed to by both parties.

In all other cases, except when advisory arbitration is mutually agreed to by the parties, the fees and expenses shall be borne by the party incurring them.

Where, however, the grievant elects to proceed without the Association's concurrence, the costs shall not be borne or shared by the Association.
